

Cristina Lopez Gomez

(Cantaora - Flamenco vocalist, Barcelona)

Cante Flamenco (Flamenco Singer) Cristina Lopez, born in Tarragona, and from a young age has been interested in flamenco cante. She began her flamenco studies in Barcelona with professors Alba Guerrero (Huelva), Chiqui de la línea (Cádiz), Carmen Corpas (Málaga), David Sorroche (Granada), etc.

Cristina has performed extensively in Granada and Barcelona working in various flamenco projects.

Education

2010-onwards ESMUC, Escuela Superior de Musica de Catalunya (Barcelona) – Grado Superior: Completing an honors degree in performing arts with specialization in cante flamenco with Maestro Chiqui de la Linea.

Work History

- 2003-onwards numerous performances in small theatres, local flamenco bars, private and business functions working with traditional flamenco dance and cante.
- 2011 Molino (Barcelona), worked with students from ESMUC to present four performances in el Molino as part of the Poco Ruido y Mucho Duende cycle.
- 2010-onwards Color Dansa (Barcelona) Worked as vocalist for dance company Color Dansa presenting the Al Andaluz project to sold out theatres in the south of France. The project will also be presented in September
- 2011 in the theatre Condal (Barcelona).
- 2011 AITA Dance Company, cantaora in the dance company AITA with performances at key arts festivals in Barcelona.